USPA NEWS - Lord Mandelson a Great Prime Minister Britain Never Had is UK Ambassador to United States

Britain has called upon its world famous outstanding, political son, in the nation's hour of need, to be UK's ambassador of United States. Lord Peter Mandelson, has carved his name in history, as the world's most formidable political genius. He is well known as the outstanding national and international political and diplomatic strategist. Also, a master communications director, said Shazada Hayat President UICF (UK) and international community welfare campaigner.

Just as in football today, one compares Cristiano Ronaldo to the legendary Lionel Messi, Diego Maradona and Pele. Similarly, Lord Peter Mandelson, is in the same league as the leading mastermind communicators in political terms, such as the legendary Edward Bernays and Joseph Goebbels. In terms of politics, he is also in the same league with Henry Kissinger and Augustus Caesar. These propaganda and political strategy mastermind geniuses of their art, were formidable forces to be reckoned with. They most certainly were game changers. Niccolio Machiavelli, the world father of political strategy, would have been so proud of these undisputed world champions of political strategy and international diplomacy, said Shazada Hayat.

Lord Mandelson's outstanding achievement and service to his beloved Britain speaks volumes. Lord Mandelson was the architect and mastermind behind ex-Prime Minister Tony Blair's, "New Labour" and the mastermind of Labour's three successive election victories. Thus, responsible for making Tony Blair the unbeatable three times UK Prime Minister. The Labour Party was in the wilderness was resurrected and became victorious and unbeatable. The main credit has to go Lord Peter Mandelson and the former Prime Minister Tony Blair for Labour's monumental success. This was the best all time achievement in the history of UK politics by Labour. One can say, without any hesitation during the time of Tony Blair's years, Britain had two prime ministers, one being the visible one Prime Minister Tony Blair, and the other being the invisible one, which was Lord Mandelson. More recently, Lord Mandelson has also played a significant part in the success and victory of Labour and the current Prime Minister Sir Kier Starmer. Without mincing one's words, one can also say, with confidence, apart from a very few politicians in Britain and Europe today, the rest are not even fit to tie the shoelaces of Lord Peter Mandelson said Shazada Hayat.

The relationship between the British Prime Minister Sir Kier Starmer and President Donald Trump is at an all-time low. In fact, it is the worst between a UK prime minister and a USA president has ever been in history. This is the reason Britain, in its hour of need, has called upon one of the nation's greatest political sons, Lord Peter Mandelson, to take command in the USA, despite being way over qualified for the job.

The United States, undoubtedly considered Britain a very close ally country and a strategic partner. Britain, having Lord Mandelson, looking after the British national and political interest in America, is just awesome. This can best be described as, having a British Prime Minister, British Foreign Secretary and world class diplomat, all three rolled into one Lord Mandelson, representing UK.

Shazada Hayat went on to say, Lord Mandelson is best known as a staunch believer in, winning is the only option when you are representing your country, Great Britain. It is therefore, a foregone conclusion that his Excellency Lord Peter Mandelson the UK Ambassador, will achieve great diplomatic glory for Britain in the USA.

Lord Peter Mandelson has always served his beloved nation with utmost pride, patriotism and distinction. He is a true unique strategic mind and a phenomenal communicator, which puts the great master into a class of his own. I am also proud to thank Lord Peter Mandelson, for being my political and diplomat inspiration and a mentor in the art of political strategy and communication. Britain, owes a huge debt to Lord Mandelson for his monumental achievement and great service to his beloved country. He has most certainly shaped the political history nationally and internationally.

Whether one is a political enemy of Lord Mandelson or commends his skills, which is the norms in the field politics, one has to give credit where it is due. Lord Mandelson, is the undisputed world champion, a legend of political and diplomatic strategy and a master of communication skills. Therefore, if there was anyone, at this stage, who can take the relationship between the United Kingdom and the United States to an all times high, it is most certainly His Excellency Lord Peter Mandelson the new Ambassador of United Kingdom, to the United States, said: Shazada Hayat.
